

An Embrace the Middle East
Encounter tour to the

HOLY LAND

Monday 20 - Thursday 30 November 2017

Led by Su McClellan and Craig Grocock

Embrace the Middle East is the UK's leading development charity tackling poverty and injustice in the Middle East, specifically in Lebanon, Syria, Israel, Palestine and Egypt. We work through local Christian partners who work with all those in need irrespective of faith, nationality or political affiliation, to provide education, healthcare and community development.

Embrace has been organising Encounter Tours to the region for many years. We have built up a wealth of experience in helping people to experience the land where Jesus walked, both the historical sites and encountering the 'living stones' the Christian communities that live and work in this beautiful but troubled land.

This Encounter Tour will give you the opportunity to spend time in Bethlehem, tour the main historical sites in Jerusalem, meet amazing people doing amazing things in Christ's name, experience the still small voice of Lake Galilee and see the incredible Roman sites of Zippori and Caesarea.

There will be time for reflection and worship and an Embrace member of staff will be there to answer any questions you may have. We will benefit from the services of a fully qualified guide who will not only share their expertise but will ensure that the whole trip runs smoothly.

We look forward to journeying with you.
