Israel today

International celebration

Dear friend,

I am delighted to welcome you on our trip to the historical and biblical- Holy Land of Israel from Sunday 18th - Tuesday 27th November 2018.

For many, going on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land is a Christians dream.

For since Jesus' time the Roman's, Byzantines, Moslems, Turks and the British have all come and left their mark on this tiny land which is roughly the size of Wales.

Now is your time to leave your mark in Modern Israel, especially on her 70th Birthday (1948).

This is not a vacation or a holiday, but a time of Spiritual Growth and Educational Experience.

The main aim of our trip to Israel is to learn and experience the places named in our Bible, to walk where Jesus walked, with your Bible as your guide book.

When we have stood together in the synagogue and the Temple area where He taught, and when we enter and view His empty tomb, surely, we will come home with a new grasp of the Bible and an added dimension to our faith.

Check your calendar and see if you can join our group in this wonderful experience. God bless you even as you bless Israel by coming on this tour. (Gen.12:3).

Reverend Mrs Agatha Arthur-Bossoh.
