

A United Methodist Church Biblical Journey Through

ISRAEL

Led by Pastor KH Mudambanuki

Monday 28th Sept to Monday 5th October 2020

OPEN HEARTS. OPEN MINDS. OPEN DOORS.

Worldwide Christian Travel

A tour to Israel would benefit every Christian. We will be leading a United Methodist Group from the UK in 2020 to explore the Holy Land (Israel).

This visit to the Holy land will greatly enhance our understanding of the context in which the bible was established and the environment that Jesus did his ministry as well as enhancing my pastoral ministry.

To be sure, many truths in Scripture we have to accept by faith. But the lands of the bible are still there to see. The places where Jesus walked, taught, and healed are accessible to all.

As Christians we teach and preach each week about Jesus and the places which He visited that we have never seen in person yet, the truths of Scripture are rooted within a grammatical-historical and geographical context.

Once a Christian adds geography to his/her preaching, the accuracy of his/her communication increases.
