Join me for this exceptional Tour visiting the Seven Churches of Asia.

Not only will we be delving into biblical history and visiting church sites named in those early chapters of Revelation, we will also be marvelling at beautiful scenery and sharing great company.

Sarfraz and Pam

Our Pilgrimage takes you in the footsteps of the Apostle Paul. The Bible will be our guide book as we stand in the ruins of the ancient Churches; recall the teachings and divine revelations.

The stories of scripture will come alive for you afresh. You will have an unforgettable experience that will encourage and build your faith, as well as wonderful times of great friendship, fellowship and food together.

Day 1 - Tuesday

We depart from London Heathrow, then on arrival transfer to the Blanca hotel Izmir, for dinner and overnight.

Day 2 - Wednesday

There will be a time of worship in the hotel with an afternoon visit to the Ancient Agora, of Smyrna the remainder of the day at leisure in Izmir. Dinner and overnight in the Blanca hotel Izmir.

Day 3 - Thursday

Today we travel by coach to Bergama (Pergamum), one of the most impressive classical sites in Turkey, a city which once rivalled Alexandria and Antioch as a centre for the arts and sciences. Of particular interest is the Asclepieion, one of the foremost medical centres of the ancient world - a huge complex that includes temples, treatment rooms, pools, a sacred spring, a library and even a theatre for entertainment. If open we will go up to the great Theatre and see the Foundations of the Pergamum altar, which is now on display in the Pergamum museum in Berlin, Germany. Then we travel to Akhisar (Thyatira), with its remains of a basilica, some Roman archaeological fragments and some Christian remains. Dinner and overnight in the Blanca hotel Izmir.

Day 4 - Friday

Travel to Sart (Sardis), the ancient capital of the Kingdom of Lydia set in the crumbling mountains. We view the Temple of Artemis, with the largest Ionic columns in the Greek world, Lydian houses, a Byzantine church and a reconstructed synagogue. Continue to Alasehir (Philadelphia), with its numerous remains of early Christian churches. Then to Pamukkale, one of the most spectacular natural wonders of Turkey, where thermal spring waters have carved a dazzling white petrified cascade of basins, cataracts and stalactites. Dinner and overnight in Pamukkale.

Day 5 - Saturday

We visit the Necropolis at Hierapolis, then drive to Laodicea on the south bank of the River Lyros, whose sights included temples, a fountain, a theatre, Odean gymnasium, aqueduct and sarcophagi. Visit to Colossae and then continue to Kusadasi on the Aegean coast. Dinner and overnight in Kusadasi.

Day 6 - Sunday

Travel by coach to Efes (Ephesus), Ephesus is one of the world's most impressive sites. Once the Roman capital of Asia, it was here that Mark Anthony and Cleopatra once rode in procession, St Paul came at the dawn of Christianity and the followers of Artemis rioted in protest. It is said that Mary, the mother of Jesus, spent her last days nearby. Visit the House of the Virgin Mary, Ephesus itself, the Gladiators graveyard, and the museum. After lunch visit St John's church, and then the Temple of Artemis. Dinner and overnight in Kusadasi.
