We share a traditional lunch with a local Palestinian family in order to taste delicious Arabic cuisine and learn about the local culture and traditions. After the lively interaction with locals, we visit the Bethlehem museum, walk through the streets of the old city and familiarise ourselves with the Israeli - Palestinian wall of separation and its stories.

After the dinner in the hotel we go to taste famous local sweets called 'knafa' (optional), it's very tasty!

We travel by bus to Jerusalem visiting the Temple Mount, the actual place of where the second temple was built and the Western Wall, the only outdoor wall of the Temple Mount saved from the second temple period. We also visit the Israeli museum, seeing the original scrolls of Isaiah found in Qumran and 1:50 model of the city of Jerusalem from the second temple period. We visit the Garden Tomb, which represents an authentic place burial during ancient times. The last visit of the day will be Bethpage, where Jesus started his walk to Jerusalem one week before Passover.

This morning we travel by bus back to Jerusalem, to experience the 'Via Dolorosa' and carry a real cross representing our sins. We visit Mount Zion, where Jesus and his disciples had the last supper. We walk down the Mount of Olives to the Garden of Gethsemane, where olive trees dating back to the time of Jesus are still present and we visit the Church of All Nations, a church representing the agony of Jesus in Gethsemane.

Dinner and overnight in Bethlehem.

Day 5 - Thursday

Today we travel down towards the Dead Sea visiting the authentic place of Jesus' baptism site in the River Jordan where there will be opportunity to renew our baptismal vows. Then travel to Qumran, where Isaiah scripts were found and the Dead Sea, where we can float and relax our body and soul.

Dinner and overnight in Bethlehem.

Day 6 - Friday

This morning we drive back towards the Dead Sea to Jericho, the oldest city in the world. Explore the Mount of Temptation, the place in the desert where Jesus said to the devil 'Man does not live on the bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.' Mt 4, 4. Then travel north along the Jordan valley Road towards Galilee and Mount Tabor, where the transfiguration took place. Continue to Cana of Galilee, where the first miracle of Jesus was undertaken. Visit 'the synagogue', where Jesus prayed during his life in Nazareth. After breakfast, we visit the places of Jesus' Ministry; Mount of Beatitudes, Tabgha (multiplication of fish and bread, Peter's primacy) and Capernaum.
