We have led tours to Israel on a number of occasions and always found them inspirational. It both encourages our faith and gives to us a deeper insight into the scriptures. The fellowship and enjoyment we share with other believers is beneficial to us all. This tour is one of the most comprehensive we have undertaken. We will visit biblical sites in the north, south, east and west of this amazing country.

You will be welcome to join us for this memorable and never to be forgotten journey through many parts of the Bible. It will be one that you will look back upon with excitement and wonder, especially the occasions when you walked in the footsteps of our Saviour.

There is an optional stay with no planned excursions in Netanya for an extra 3 nights at £618 per person. Netanya is now known as Israel's French Riviera partly due to its wonderful Mediterranean sandy beaches. Returning on Monday 19th May.
